

REPENT AND REMEMBER

Part 1

A#m F#
I've been watching you a long, long time
C# G#
My eyes on ever on you
A#m F#
Wolves dressed like sheep came into Your midst
C# G#
Yet you saw through the lies, you were zealous for the truth
F# C#
I know your toils and I know your deeds
A#m
You haven't grown weary through the trials and the struggle
G#
You've endured and held fast to Me
F# C#
Yet for all the good you've done, there's one thing that you've left behind
A#m G#
Though it breaks my heart to say it, you've abandoned and forsaken that love
A#m
That once burned so bright

Part 2 (Chorus)

A#m F# C# G#
So repent and remember the height from which you have fallen
A#m F# F#
Do the things you did at first, seek My face
C# G# A#m
Or I will come and move your lampstand from its place

Part 3

A#m
Yet you hate the deeds of evil men, which I also hate
F#
You have this on your side
C# C#
So let me fan your love back into flame, as you call upon my holy name
G# G#
Draw near, cry out, and by the breath of My Spirit I will bring you back to life

REPENT AND REMEMBER

Reading

A#m

He who has ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches
